

KMC Inc. is a leading enterprise IT solutions provider specializing in information systems development and highly reliable management services for commercial, non-profit and government clients. KMC is an 8(a) certified minority-owned small disadvantaged firm and holds a GSA Schedule 70 IT Services contract.

Our team of experienced professionals has been helping organizations for over 15 years to build out their enterprise architecture. This can be followed by a general services agreement where the architecture is brought to life using the best suited technologies.

KMC Inc, 8229 Boone Blvd. Suite #290, Vienna VA 22182 | www.kmccorp.com | 703-537-1145

eLibrary is a web-based document management system used to store, archive, and search for documents and other content. eLibrary supports versioning, workflow, search and browse, notification, security, audit and has synchronization capabilities in multiple regional deployments.

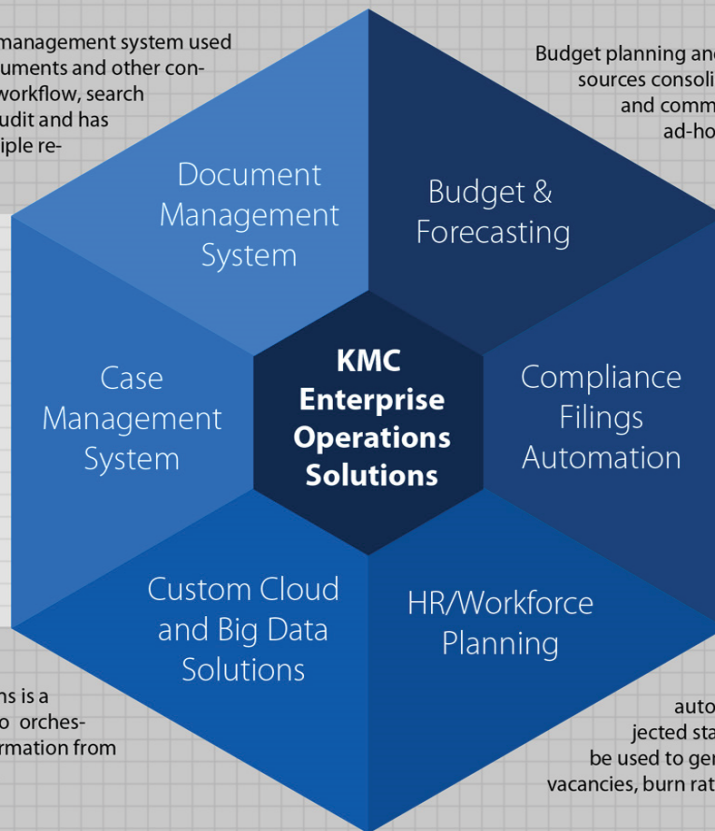

Case Management System is a Microsoft CRM/xRM based solution that enables agencies and organizations to electronically manage case intakes and workload, assign\secure\track cases, manage case document, generate electronic correspondences, audits and dashboard reports, and case records management

Custom Cloud and Big Data Solutions is a healthcare industry standard used to orchestrate the transfer of healthcare information from one healthcare provider to another.

Budget planning and execution, multiple data sources consolidation and reconciliation, obligations and commitments, status of funds reporting, ad-hoc and advanced reporting eFDS-is a web-based solution that enables users to electronically file, track, and review Federal Financial Disclosure Forms 278, 278-T (the STOCK Act), and 450. The solution can be extended to meet agency's paperless filing requirements for any forms eSPA is our secure HR application that automates and manages current and projected staffing information. The application can be used to generate real time organizational charts, vacancies, burn rates and staffing needs of enterprises

APPROACH

With the extensive knowledge and experience our team brings to our clients we have demonstrated the ability to develop and deploy solutions quickly and at a fraction of the cost of traditional software by using agile and iterative development processes.

Our customers are always our top priority and we are proud of the many long-term relationships we have established. KMC's continuous growth is a testament to the many successes our clients have enjoyed

PROMISE